INVADING CAPE COLONY.

Cape Town, December 20. - The situation in the northern districts of Cupe Colony is most serious. Fully 2000 Boers have invaded that section Grave fears are entertained that Dutch sympathizers will join the re-hellion, and that this will spread. Al-though there is no fear as to the ulti-mate result, the nick of a sufficient number of mounted troops is felt by the British. The enormous waste of horses in South arries was never fully appreciated until now.

Police Think They Have Clews-Omaha Scene of What Threatened to be Second Charley Ross Affair-Story of the Boy.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 20, - Edward udahy, Jr., the fifteen-year-old son of the millionaire ment packer was kidnaped Tuesday evening and held thirty-six hours for a ransom of $25,-600 in gold. The young man's father unnesitatingly paid the amount and the son has been returned to his fam-ity. At 9 yelrok Wednesday a horse-man rode past the Cudahy mansion, on Thirty-eighth street, and threw a letter into the lawn. A servant no-ticed the action, and seeing the letter, found it contained the information that the young man had been kidnapped and was safe, and was being held for a ransom. Three hours later Mr. Cudahy received, through the mails, a communication which read "Omaha, Neb., Dec. 19. - Mr. Cud.:-

The Boy Returned.

' Mr. Cudahy did exactly as was directed driving in the course mapped out and placing the bag of money very near to the lantern which he found near to the lantern which he found. That the bandits were near the spot and at once secured the valuable package cannot be doubted, for about 1 o'clock this morning the young man ran breathlessly up to the front door of his father's home and rang the bell for admission. Two policemen, who, in the early evening, had been placed near the family mansion, had later been sent to the stables by Mr. Cudahy, who feared that, should the men return the boy and see the policemen. hy, who feared that, should the men-return the boy and see the policemen, they would drive away without leav-ing him. The coy came in so sud-denly the police knew nothing of it until a member of the family went to the stables and informed them that the young man had returned and that the young man had refurned and that their services could be disnensed with. The young man told a story of how he was accested by two men on the street Tuesday evening who claimed to be sheriffs of Sarny county. They made a pretense of acresting him as an escaped immate of the reform school, named Eddle McGee. They drove him away and it one point when he shouted to a carman for the purpose of being identifield, his cry was not heard and the field, his cry was not heard and the handlis then blindfelded him. He was taken to an empty house in the out-skirts and challed to the floor where he remained all night and day was too nervous to eat or sleep. He was offered food and only once did

At hight, for some unknown reason, the rown released young Codahy from his chain and said. We are going to take you come. Then they led in a to a hack. He was driven rapidly through the darkness to Thirty seventh and Leavenworth streets, where he was allowed to leave the seriage. From there he walled home.

Hendquarters of Bandits

Omaha, December 21. — The house in which Eddie Cudahy was kept while a prisoner in the hands of kidnamers was discovered this afternoon by the police. It was identified by the boy to the antisfaction of Chief of Police Domaine. The finding of it led to the securing of a good description of some of the criminals and made possible new clews. Further than this and the hint that Pat Crowe, Omahas most desperate criminal, may have been one of the kinnapers, neither the police nor half a hundred occeptives at work on the case have any of the results of their labors to make milite. Two reporters were at the place when the police arrived and came when the police arrived and came namers was discovered this aftern when the police arrived and came near being taken for the outlaws. A gun was leveled at one of them at first be the soon satisfied the officer of his identity.

Seattle, Dec. 20, - The steamer John S. Kimball, which salled Sunday for Honolulu, returned to port to-day, having sprang a leak in the furious gale that raged off Cape Flattery Monday and Tuesday. Part of her cargo will be unloaded prior to an ex-amination of her hun. The leak is amination of her hun. The leak is believed to be above the water line, near the bows.

The Kimball had a thrilling encounonce to run for shelter before it was decided to return to Seattle. Heavy reas swept the vessel, the water pen-etrating to the engine-rooms from Tuesday morning to Wednesday night, when the boat reached Port Angeles. Pumps were constantly working, bare by keeping the lenkage under control.

Gallant work was done by Chief Engineer McIntosh, who labored eighteen hours at one stretch in the engine-room, standing up to his knees in water and encouraging the stokers.

The Kimball was on her initial you. give the money the child will be returned as safe as when you last saw him, but if you refuse we will put acid in his eyes and blind him, then we will immediately kidnap another millionaire's child that we have spotted and demand $100,000, and we will get it, for he will see the condition of your child and realize the fact that we mean business and will not be monkeyed with or captured.
